1. NOTICE REGARDING THE PROTECTION OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

WATT AND VOLT S.A. (hereinafter the "Company") acting as Data Controller with regards to your personal data contained in this Application Form, may process such data for the purposes set forth herein. Company shall safely keep your personal data for the entire duration of our relationship, without prejudice to any revocation of the standing order on your end, and may not share or transfer your personal data to any third parties, except for banks or other financial institutions.
 For further information on how the Company uses and protects your personal data and how you could exercise your rights, Company's Privacy Notice is available at Company's official website (<https://www.watt-volt.gr/en/privacy-policy/>). You may also contact us through the online contact form found on Company's website or via e-mail at privacy@watt-volt.gr.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS BY APPLICANT & CARDHOLDER

I hereby authorize the Company to provide my bank with instructions on the charge of my credit/debit card and my bank to charge my credit/debit card according to the instructions received from the Company. In the event of cancellation or de-activation of the credit/debit card or in the event of any petition for the activated standing order to be revoked, I must immediately pay in full any amount charged up the date of said revocation. Company reserves the right to unilaterally terminate the Standing order for said credit/debit card, if the Bank cancels the related card or in case of insufficient conclusion of payments for two (2) consecutive bills. The processing of my personal data by the Company, with regards to the execution of the standing order for payment of the bills via credit/debit card, is necessary for the execution of the Supply Agreement executed between the customer and the Company.

3. CARDHOLDER'S CONSENT

In case the holder of the credit/debit card is different from the applicant, who is asking for the activation of the standing order, by signing this Application form, the cardholder: (i) authorizes the Company to provide his/her bank with instructions regarding the charge of his/her credit/debit card and his/her bank to charge the respective credit/debit card according to the instructions received from the Company in order to pay in full his/her outstanding debts towards the Company, and (ii) consents to the Company processing his/her personal data for the activation of said standing order for paying applicant's bills via his/her credit/debit card.
